The first measure contains notes on the 5th, 4th, 3rd, 2nd, and 1st ledger lines below the staff. The second measure contains notes on the 5th, 4th, 3rd, 2nd, and 1st ledger lines above the staff.

2. March D-Light

 $\text{J} = 76$

Jensen

The musical score for '2. March D-Light' is in 2/4 time. It features a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (G major). The score is divided into four staves. The first staff starts with a dynamic of mp, followed by a crescendo (cresc.) and then a dynamic of f dim.. The second staff begins with mp, followed by a crescendo (cresc.) and then f. The third staff ends with dim.. The fourth staff concludes the piece. Articulations are indicated by short vertical dashes under many of the notes.

Allow the musical line to continue its arc even though there are many rests. Keep the musical energy moving through the rests by creating gentle releases of the notes before rests, and by beginning the note after a rest at the same dynamic at which you left the previous note.

3. Chromati-tastic

Jensen

The musical score for '3. Chromati-tastic' is in 6/8 time. It features a bass clef and a key signature of one sharp (G major). The score consists of two staves. The first staff shows a continuous sequence of eighth-note chords. The second staff continues the pattern. Articulations are indicated by short vertical dashes under many of the notes.

Remember to minimize movement in your thumb. Since you will be using the whisper key throughout the etude, position your left thumb high on the key, close to the C# key. To play C#, slightly pivot your thumb upwards to press the C# and low D keys. You may also use the whisper key lock (if your instrument has one), so you do not have to press the whisper key at all, freeing your thumb to manage only the other two keys on C#.

4. Andante

Julius Weissenborn
arr. Jensen
